Today, as part of Farm to School Month 2019 and in celebration of World Food Day 2019, Farm to Cafeteria Canada, in partnership with the Whole Kids Foundation, is pleased to share details of the third round of Farm to School Canada Grants with applications opening January 1, 2020.

This year, the World Food Day theme is drawing attention to the importance of nourishing people and the planet. It calls on everyone to think about what we eat, where our food comes from – and the impact our diets can have on biodiversity and diet related disease. It calls for a return to time spent connecting with our food and the land it and waters it comes from.

Farm to School Canada Grants help enable these connections by providing students and communities an opportunity to engage in:

Growing Purchasing Harvesting
Cooking
Serving
Learning about & Eating...

Healthy, local and sustainable foods at school!
